NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release:

Perkins County Sheriff Names
Interim Chief Deputy Sheriff

Perkins County Sheriff Jim Brueggeman is pleased to announce that Rick Dreiling has been selected as the new Interim Chief Deputy Sheriff for the Perkins County Sheriff's Office. Dreiling will begin his duties as Interim Chief Deputy Sheriff on December 1, 2004.

Dreiling fills the position vacated by Brueggeman on September 20, 2004 when Brueggeman was appointed Interim Perkins County Sheriff by the Perkins County Board of Commissioners due to the September 7, 2004 military activation of Perkins County Sheriff Mark Bottom.

Dreiling brings to the Chief Deputy Sheriff position six years of law enforcement experience to include his work as a police officer in both Kansas and Nebraska prior to assuming duties as a Deputy Sheriff with the Perkins County Sheriff's Office in May 2004.

"I am very pleased that Rick will be assuming the Chief Deputy Sheriff position with the Perkins County Sheriff's Office," said Sheriff Brueggeman. "In working with Rick the past six months, I've quickly discovered that he will be an asset to the office and the public in this position."
